Central Saint Martins School 2014 Degree Shows

Congratulations to the 2014 classes! Last night was the preview of the 2014 degree show. It opened to the public today and will run until May 27th.

I first went to see Andy Flett who is one of the artists of Galerie E.G.P to congratulate him and see his latest artwork. He will be exhibiting in Paris again for Be My Guest a show opening on June 12th, 2014. The idea? The artists of the gallery have become curators and invited an artist that they relate to. For Andy Flett, this artist is June Jung who also graduated last night.
